

CAS
Center for Africana Studies

CAS Fellowship Symposium

Monday, April 20, 2026 | COB2 290 | 1-3pm

Join the 2025-26 Center for Africana Studies fellowship scholars
as they share their incredible research!
Lunch will be provided.

Genevieve Egbunno

“Complicit Culture and the Social Mobility of Women in Marriage”

Sedney Suarez Gordon

“A Kriol Module by the Raizal People for Today's Classroom: Drifting Pedagogies in the Colombian Caribbean”

Daniel Chidozie Nnadi

“Characters at the Table: The Barbershops and Salons as Safe Spaces for Emotional Expression and Family Bonding”

Olajide Ogunmakinju

“What Field Work Does: Reflections on Nigerian Diaspora Masculinity in Houston, Texas”

Omowumi M. Omole

“In Time, Nigeria Will Have Better Laws’: Diasporic Anticipatory Politics, Pentecostalism, and Marital Rape Legislation in Nigeria”

Bethany L. Padrón

“Blues Music as a Language for Black Feminist Theory”

